

CALL FOR DESIGN OBJECT 2024

LUCCA BIENNALE CARTASIA Competition - 12th edition - 2024

Call for Submission of design objects made of paper (and derivatives) to be displayed during LUBICA

PREMISE

LUBICA - Lucca Biennale Cartasia is the biggest worldwide art event dedicated to Paper as an artistic and architectural means, taking place every two years in the city of Lucca, Tuscany. LUBICA was established in 2004 with the mission of promoting tradition, culture, sustainability and innovation. The 12th edition will be held in 2024, celebrating twenty years of activity.

LUBICA aims to create stimuli and to facilitate interactions between artists willing to take on challenges, "educate to beauty," care for others, and, above all, break away from conventions and create new perspectives.

GOALS

The competition focuses on showcasing design objects made of paper (and derivatives), distinguished by their originality and bold, innovative use of materials. The selected design objects will be displayed in LUBICA's venues.

ADMISSION REQUIRMENTS

The call is open to all professional and/or emerging designers who are of legal age, including those with backgrounds in architecture and design, universities, and students. The use of paper (and derivatives) must predominate over the total components of each submitted design object. Each participant can submit up to a maximum of 10 design objects.
